UNITED STATES OF AMERICA, Plaintiff, VS. QING SHI, Aka "Jenny," Defendant.

CASE NO. 2:20-CR-00102-GMN-DJA

STIPULATION AND PROPOSED ORDER TO CONTINUE SENTENCING (Second Request)

Qing Shi, by and through counsel of record Kathleen Bliss, Esq., and Jacqueline Tirinnanzi, Esq., and the United States of America, by and through Assistant United States Attorney Kimberly Sokolich, hereby stipulate and request that the Court vacate Ms. Shi's sentencing hearing currently set for April 20, 2022, at 2:00 p.m. and continue it to a later date convenient to the Court, but no sooner than (45) days. This stipulation is made and based upon the following:

- 1. The parties agree to the continuance.
- 2. On October 20, 2021, Ms. Shi pleaded guilty to one count of Conspiracy to Distribute a

- 3. Defense counsel's ability to effectively and thoroughly explore all factors relevant to Ms. Shi's mitigation and sentencing presentation requires additional time due to language barriers, the need for interpretation, and physical distance. Additionally, there are complex cultural issues to explore, and a sentencing mitigation expert is assisting with that inquiry; her schedule requires additional time.
- 4. Ms. Shi speaks Mandarin and requires an interpreter for even basic communication with counsel, necessitating additional layers of scheduling to facilitate client communication.
- 5. Ms. Shi resides in West Wendover, Nevada, a small remote town in the far northeast corner of the state. West Wendover is nearly a six-hour drive to either Las Vegas or Reno (the two locations for the United States District Court for the District of Nevada). Ms. Shi relies on her friend and roommate to transport her to Las Vegas for her court appearances, and a later date is preferred.
- 6. Ms. Shi wants to be present in the courtroom for her sentencing hearing. Not only does Ms. Shi want to be present, but she requires an interpreter, and thus an in-person hearing is more conducive to delivering seamless interpretation (as opposed to remote).
- 7. Ms. Shi is not in custody and agrees to the proposed continuance.
- 8. Ms. Shi is currently gainfully employed in the buffet of a local West Wendover casino and has plans to further her training and education so she can obtain a position as a card dealer.
- 9. The additional time requested by this stipulation is reasonable pursuant to Fed. R. Crim. P. 32(b)(2), which states that the "court may, for good cause, change any time limits prescribed [for sentencing] in this rule." Furthermore, a delay in sentencing does not implicate or undermine the defendant's speedy trial rights under the United States Constitution. See Betterman v. Montana, 136 S.Ct. 1609, 1617-18 (2016).

- 10. This is the second request for a continuance of the sentencing. The additional time requested herein is not sought for purposes of delay. No further continuances are anticipated, Ms. Shi is eager to reach resolution in the matter.
- 11. Denial of this request for a continuance would deny counsel for Ms. Shi sufficient time to effectively and thoroughly prepare for sentencing, taking into account due diligence. Accordingly, a denial of this request for continuance could result in a miscarriage of justice.

Furthermore, a delay in sentencing does not implicate or undermine the defendant's speedy trial rights under the United States Constitution. See Betterman v. Montana, 136 S.Ct. 1609, 1617-18 (2016).
- 10. This is the second request for a continuance of the sentencing. The additional time requested herein is not sought for purposes of delay. No further continuances are anticipated, Ms. Shi is eager to reach resolution in the matter.
- 11. Denial of this request for a continuance would deny counsel for Ms. Shi sufficient time to effectively and thoroughly prepare for sentencing, taking into account due diligence. Accordingly, a denial of this request for continuance could result in a miscarriage of justice.

CONCLUSION OF LAW

For all the above-stated reasons, the ends of justice are served by granting the requested continuance for the following reasons: Additional time requested by this stipulation is reasonable
